

Faculty of Health and Behavioural Science

Professional Staff Award – Leadership

2023 Nomination Guidelines

Value: $3000

The Leadership Award recognises the exemplary leadership of professional staff from the Faculty of Health and Behavioural Sciences who help to create a positive, performance-based culture, and contribute to the achievements of the Faculty. Nominations for new and emerging professional staff leaders are encouraged.

Nominations should demonstrate:

- An individual who inspires employees to focus their individual talents on the goals of the organisation and to contribute at the highest level.
- This leader values people and is a guardian of the culture and exemplars in living the organisation's values.
- This leader thinks and works strategically; achieves results, drives accountability and fosters learning.